WHY JOIN US:

Large companies have rigid career ladders. We don't. There are open roles just waiting for you to grow into them. At Ethos Civil you can accelerate your career and have a hand in building and owning a thriving business.

Balancing a career and personal interests is a juggling act. Our comp time, flexible work hours and PTO policy minimizes friction between work and personal priorities. Our managers and principals set the tone by taking time away to recharge and be there for their families.

Our culture is summed up by the Golden Rule; treat others the way you'd like to be treated; life is too short to work with jerks. You won't just be a number in a corporation of five mergers. You'll work alongside your project managers and principals and benefit from a tailored professional development program

ABOUT ETHOS

We don't offer jobs—we offer careers.

We're a dynamic, veteran-owned, growing civil site design company in the Pacific Northwest serving broad markets and clients in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

We're building a different kind of company where we treat others the way we'd like to be treated, and place a premium on financial transparency and building trust, making ownership in the company broadly available to align ownership and team-focused culture. Further alignment between career development and efficiency is encouraged by our aggressive all-in-compensation strategy that offers 401(k) matching, profit sharing and biannual bonuses.

We value integrity, self-motivation, eagerness to learn, an intrapreneurial mindset and a positive attitude. We don't offer jobs – we offer careers marked by professional development, growing responsibility and commensurate financial rewards.

We've structured an industry leading all-in-compensation package tailored to long-term growth and financial independence through profit sharing, top-tier 401(k) match, overtime, proactive conversations about annual raises and share options making ownership in the company available sooner and more profitable than is typical in our industry.
